

WISPs need more unlicensed bandwidth... The current restrictions are hurting the consumers/public and furthering the confusion around interference from other wireless devices like cordless phones... Please reconsider!